JUST THREE MORE TRIPLE VOTE DAYS

Monday Night At 10 O'clock Will Mark The Close of The Supreme Vote Getting Period--Intense Excitement In Greatest Contest In The History of Richmond.

LONG TERM SUBSCRIPTIONS WILL BE OF THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE DURING THE REMAINING HOURS OF THE TRIPLE VOTE SEASON.

The end of the Great Triple Vote Offer is now very near. Only THREE more days remain. Saturday, Sunday and Monday; just THREE wonderful opportunity days in which to gather the harvest of Triple Votes and insure oneself of being one of the Really Big Prize winners of this Contest. Every popular candidate fully realizes this fact. They are not going to leave a stone unturned during these THREE remaining precious days to secure every possible subscription and extension. They know full well that their orders of one year and over are going to mean far, far less votes after Monday night; and it is not going to be their fault if a subscription or extension escapes them during this supreme period. They are also calling these important facts to the attention of their close friends and relatives and getting them to do their very best by Monday night.

The Candidates out to win have concentrated their minds on securing the greatest possible amount of votes while the Great Triple Vote Offer remains in force. They fully realize that it is the ONE WAY to make easy the winning of that Dodge Touring Automobile on May 24th.

LONG-TERM ORDERS.

Now that the time of the Great Triple Vote Season is growing short, the importance of Long-Term Orders increases. It is the easiest way to roll an impregnable vote total. The popular Candidates who have these two or five-year orders promised them for the end of the contest should not lose one minute in getting them fulfilled. Do not forget that the GREATEST REDUCTION of the Contest will be on these long termers, and it is therefore of the utmost importance to secure every one promised and turn them in Monday night at 10 o'clock. It is the one best way to become a leader, to insure your leadership and come out the winner of the Magnificent Dodge Brothers' Five-Passenger Touring Car on May 24th.

Straw Vote on City Hall Site at Dance

Say the Richmond Club women:

"If you wish to see how the candidates for council look in their Sunday-go-to-meeting togs, go out to the candidates' ball at the Richmond Club house tonight. If you think you can pick the winners by their looks, this is your chance to prove it. Anyway, you can have a good time and meet all your friends, not to mention the opportunity to cast your vote for the location of the City Hall. During the intermission the candidates will be given an opportunity to greet all those present."

The straw vote on the City Hall location has aroused a great deal of interest. The result will be made public.

AUXILIARY TO GIVE WHIST PARTY

Next Wednesday the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will give a whist party in W. O. W. Hall at 2:30 in the afternoon. Refreshments will be served and valuable prizes awarded the winners. Score cards will cost 25 cents.

SMITH WANTS LARGER POUND

"Richmond needs a larger pound," stated Poundmaster Henry Smith yesterday. "I am doing the best I can under the circumstances, but I need larger quarters in which to impound the many dogs that I constantly bring in," continued Smith.

Smith, who is recognized throughout the state as the most efficient poundmaster in the business on the coast, says he is conducting his business under difficulties. He hopes to have a small appropriation made by the council for needed additions to the pound in the near future.

Smith yesterday completed a task, which will give the impounded dogs better ventilation. Last night there were 24 canines in the pound.

MEINDERSEE GETS VALUABLE FOWL

Next to working for the improvement of the Pullman section, Meindersee likes nothing better than to raise choice fowls. He is expecting another and larger shipment of hens in a few days.

LEAGUERS NOW LOOKING INTO J. BARLYCORN

Hire Woman to Investigate Saloon Permits; Say They Will Take to Council.

Saloon applications and the granting of liquor permits in this city are now the subject of an investigation that has been started by the Good Government League. Yesterday a woman in the employ of the league finished a two-day job of delving into the eighty or more saloon permits, determining the owners of the thirst emporiums, and the signers of their applications to enter in the liquor business, which are all matters of record in City Clerk Faris' office.

Some alleged irregularities in the methods of the council in giving out saloon permits are to be called to the attention of the council in the near future by members of the Good Government League.

One of the points that the league will bring up, according to its members, is to show that the method of getting signatures for an application for a license are not in accord with law in many local instances.

Makes Death Threat--Held By Pound Man

Prisoner Attempts to Jump From Moving Car; Smith Saves Him.

Through the presence of mind of Poundmaster Henry Smith, John Hannibal, until recently an employe of the winery at Winehaven, was prevented from seriously injuring himself yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

In a fit of temporary insanity Hannibal attempted to jump off of a rapidly moving street car as it was passing the National Hotel, conducted by R. Bobba at 443 Standard avenue. Hannibal claims, during mental lapses, that Bobba killed his brother. When he tried to jump off the car yesterday he exclaimed: "Let me go, I'll get him. He killed my brother. I'll kill him."

It was with difficulty that he was restrained from jumping from the car. Smith and Hannibal had a terrific battle, which ended when the car reached Washington avenue.

Several days ago Hannibal was arrested for disturbing the peace. He was sentenced to serve ten days in jail on his appearance before Police Judge Lindsey. At the time of his arrest he had delirium tremens. Yesterday morning Desk Sergeant Megowan turned Hannibal over to the poundmaster, who was ordered to give him a day's work at the pound. Glad of the chance to get a little fresh air, Hannibal accompanied Smith to the pound willingly. He worked hard for several hours, and no trace of his temporary dementia returned until he passed Bobba's place on the return to the station.

The officials know that Hannibal's brother is not dead, but is living in the East.

At the expiration of his ten days' sentence it is expected Hannibal will be entirely normal.

RODRIGUEZ WILL PLEAD SELF-DEFENSE

Antone Rodrigues, who confessed to the murder of Herman Singh, Hindu, will seek to escape the penalties of the law on the grounds that he killed Singh in self-defense.

Rodriguez will be given his preliminary examination in Judge Hayden's court in Martinez next Tuesday. It is said that Rodriguez will show that he had a fight with the Hindu and that in fear he would attack him again, went to the cabin and procured a shotgun and killed him.

TIDELANDS AGREEMENT IS KILLED

Signal Victory Won By District Attorney T. D. Johnston at Sacramento.

The Senate judiciary committee has unanimously reported a "do not pass" on the proposed measure, providing for a trade of tidelands between the city of Richmond and the Richmond Wharf and Dock Company. This effectively kills the proposed agreement.

District Attorney Thomas D. Johnston fought the agreement, representing the Taxpayers' Association. He was opposed by City Attorney Hall and Attorneys Black, Reed and Neubeomer.

Speaking of his victory last night, District Attorney Johnston said:

"The Richmond Dock Company is another name for the Henshaw-Macdonald Real Estate Company. Had the agreement been approved by the Legislature the city would have had to build a bulkhead in front of the real estate company's acres. This was the stipulation contained in the agreement and was the nigger in the woodpile.

"It would have been fine for the city to trade away 50 acres of tideland for 25 acres and then to drain and bulkhead the land given the real estate company so that it could be sold as factory sites.

Johnston fought the measure on the grounds that it could not be ratified by the Legislature, as the state constitution provides that the Legislature cannot pass on special or local legislation; and because he does not believe it is right to barter away public lands.

"It would be cheaper for the city," said Johnston, "to condemn what tideland it needs. I consider the defeat of the measure a victory for the people of Richmond."

Johnston declared his belief that Attorney General Webb was wrong in ruling that the measure could be passed on by the Legislature, holding that it is decidedly special and local legislation.

No Clue To Bandits Who Shot Anderson

After an all-day search the police last night had obtained no clue as to the identity of the man who shot Henry Anderson, 724 Fourteenth street, early yesterday morning at Roosevelt avenue and the S. P. right of way.

Anderson declares he was accosted by three men who demanded his money. He started to run, he says, and was shot twice, in the arm and in the leg. The three men fled. Unaided he made his way home. Dr. W. E. Cunningham was summoned.

Dr. Cunningham will remove the bullets today. They are of 3 caliber.

Last night was a big night for the members of the local camp of Woodmen of the World. In addition to a big class initiation, there was a banquet, speechmaking, and plans for a big minstrel show and box social on the night of Saturday, May 1, were discussed. Eight candidates were initiated. Those inducted into full membership were Raymond E. Bushnell, Fred P. Eigenman, William Gorenflo, Ed C. Gamble, T. K. Luster, Dr. I. B. Marsh, F. J. Whitney and J. F. Silva.

Following the business of the evening, all present adjourned to the banquet hall, where the table was laden with good things to eat. Around the banquet board Attorney H. J. Wildgrube, C. A. Rogers, George Henley and all the new members made speeches. P. Morgan was a visitor at the meeting.

Plans were discussed for the big minstrel show and box social on the night of May 1. It is planned to present to the public one of those old time minstrels, in which there will bep lenty of catchy music and jokes. The cast for the show will be announced later. C. A. Officer Roy Kraemer, who was taken ill with chills and fever yesterday while at his duties at the police station, was feeling slightly better last night. If he continues to improve he will be back on the job again by Sunday. In addition to the malarial attack, Kraemer has a severe cold.

Tries Out Car-Sued For $50

D. J. Collins, Pacific Manufacturing Co. employe, was summoned before Judge Roth yesterday to show cause why he should not pay $50 damages to P. O. Elb, automobile agent, who alleges that Collins, to try out a car that he was thinking of buying, rode to San Jose in it. Elb alleges that the auto was damaged $50 worth in the trial spin. T. H. De Lap is representing Collins and J. Wildgrube is Elb's attorney.

In order that the estate may be distributed, a copy of the last will and testament of Ella M. Stewart, wife of Milton Stewart, official of the Union Oil Company at Oleum, was filed with the county clerk yesterday.

Ten thousand dollars' worth of oil stock is left to a nephew, Arthur O. Marsh, and $1000 to Morris E. Matthews, while the balance goes to the husband, John M. Critchler and Margaret C. Brasill were witnesses to the will.

G. F. Englehart has left for Alaska, where he has mining interests.

Change Of Venue Denied J. King

Application for change of venue for his client, Joseph King, local taxicab driver, who is charged with embezzling diamond earrings from Mabel Butts, was made by Attorney E. B. Taylor to Judge Lindsey yesterday. It is not believed that the request will be granted.

It is alleged that King borrowed the jewelry from the Butts woman to meet debts, and that he agreed to return them in a week or two. It is said that King has never returned the jewelry.

King wants to be tried in Concord.

Mrs. J. Harper, 650 Ninth street, left last night for Newell, W. Va., her old home.

ORDINANCE WILL KILL JITS, CLAIM

Local Bus Driver Says $10,000 Bond Will Legislate the Business to Death.

If the present ordinance, regulating the jitney bus business in this city, is finally passed, it will practically legislate all the jitney men in this city out of business, according to a statement made yesterday by A. L. Pearson, a local man, who has two machines in the local business. Pearson drives one of his machines, while the other is driven by his son, Lloyd Pearson.

Pearson says the jitneys cannot make any money, or break even in a city the size of Richmond, if they are compelled under any ordinance or law to stay on one route. This is provided in the ordinance that passed its first reading at the council meeting Monday night.

Pearson says he for one is willing to put up a $5000 bond for each of his machines. He claims, however, that the bond of $10,000 fixed by the council is too high, and the jitney men will not be able to afford to put up one of this size. He asserts the traffic here does not warrant the putting of such a high bond.

If the Richmond jitney bus ordinance finally passes, Pearson may operate a jitney bus line from Richmond to Oanland. Under this plan Pearson can stay with one established route in Richmond and Oakland both. He asserted that if he starts the Oakland line he will charge a quarter for the trip, inasmuch as many people have told him they would pay him that amount.

Phones Message Of Tragedy--No Body Is Found

Woman Tells of Death of Man Named Hill—He Is Found Be Living.

In spite of a report received by Constable Fred Davis of Stege yesterday afternoon to the effect that a dead man had been found near the Santa Fe track at Chrisite, a small station between Pinole and Martinez, no report of the death has been made to Coroner C. L. Abbott or his deputies in Richmond and Martinez. Abbott, on hearing the report last night, made an investigation. Southern Pacific and Santa Fe officials declared that there had been no accidents on their roads within the confines of the county yesterday.

The body, according to the story that was telephoned Davis by a woman who did not give her name, was found shortly after noon. In the inside coat of the man was found a card on which were the words, "James Hill, 7 Hanes avenue, Albany, Cal."

Davis journeyed to the address on the card, and found the man whose name was on it very much alive and in the best of health.

Hall stated a tramp applied to him for a place to sleep several nights ago. He allowed the tramp to sleep in his barn. Hall declared to Davis that he left a number of his personal cards in the barn, and the presumption is that the tramp toop one of the cards.

Although there are no fatal train accidents reported in this county, Coroner C. L. Abbott said he had heard of a fatality on the Southern Pacific at a small station in Solano county.

It is possible that Davis' informant gave the wrong town in telling him of the matter, and asking him to ascertain if James Hill of Albany was the man killed.

KNOW YOUR MEN BY THEIR ENEMIES

Know your men by their enemies.

The Record-Herald came out with an insane attack on Terry Carman, J. B. Ogborn and James Snee yesterday.

Hull and Milnes, caught red-handed in stealing almost $8000 from the taxpayers, have suddenly become solicitous for the welfare of the very same taxpayers that they so brazenly robbed.

Hull and Milnes are attacking only Carman, Ogborn and Snee. Says Hull and Milnes, gone suddenly crazy and showing their hand, "The Record-Herald is not boosting any candidate for councilman. We do not care who receives the nomination at the primaries on Monday, except that it should be the duty of every voter to cast his ballot for three men whose names appear on the tax roll of the city."

The attack reads like a political trick to reap votes for the labor candidates.

Because Carman is a potter, a working man; Snee a clerk and Ogborn an architect, Hull and Milnes declare "They have made a failure of their lives."

It is, indeed, too bad that we all can't be crooked newspaper owners! Hull and Milnes call Carman, Ogborn and Snee failures because they are working men. Because they are working men, Hull and Milnes says they are not capable of handling the business of the city to the interest of the taxpayers.

The Record-Herald represents the opposition to the labor candidates.

It is the voice of the men that approve of swindling lot owners on rotten streets, blind sewers, and Wall's City Hall.

The labor candidates do not appeal to the voters that approve of rotten streets, of cement work laid down regardless of specifications, of the people that would rather have the council decide where public buildings are to be located then the voters.

On the labor ticket is a clerk, a potter and an architect. Snee, a clerk, is prominent in the Clerks' Union. Carman, the potter, organized the Potters' Union in this city. Ogborn, the architect, is known all over the city for his stand on properly constructed buildings, schools, for instance. Carman has stood for the men working with him instead of grasping only for himself. Had he been willing to abandon the principles he considers as right, he might probably now be street contractor pulling for asphalt pavements! That goes for Jim Snee.

Ogborn was foolish because he refused to be blind. Ogborn believes in contractors living up to specifications. He also believes in playing square with the fellow working for wages. That made him a "dangerous" person.

The statement that they do not pay taxes is absolutely untrue.

Hull and Milnes do not care who is elected to the council, just as long as it isn't the candidates of the working people.

Know your men by their enemies. The Record-Herald is piling up votes for Carman, Ogborn and Snee.

HEALTH ITEMS.

(Contributed by Richmond Department of Health.)

People often wonder how the flies manage to live through the winter and why it is that the coming of spring a few days earlier will be seen buzzing about the house.

Well, the answer is not difficult. We have found flies breeding the past winter in a pile of manure near a cesspool, using a sheet of paper previous to the cold and rain as sufficient warmth to hatch out the eggs. It is not uncommon to see a few flies in restaurants in winter and there's no doubt but that enough flies are always able to get through the winter to furnish an unlimited supply for the summer. Then there are flies that deposit their eggs in places that are protected and lie dormant until the coming of warm weather, when they hatch out and we get a new crop of flies.

It has long been understood that 90 per cent of all so-called house flies are born and bred in stable manure. If this be true, and there is no doubt that it is, then if we would get rid of the manure pile, we would be able to get rid of 90 per cent of our flies. The remaining 10 per cent would then be easy to handle.

We now have an ordinance regulating the care, storage and handling of manure, which, if strictly enforced, would go far towards making Richmond a flyless city. The stable owners of this city can do much to rid this city of flies by giving the department of health their hearty cooperation in putting this ordinance into effect. On the other hand, they can retard the city's sanitary progress by refusing or failing to comply with the provisions of the ordinance. And by taking this latter course, they can be assured they will be exterminating their full share in adding to the nuisance that threaten the health of this city and that help to terrorize or even to death rate frim diseases that are due to filth and flies.

If you know of any unsanitary condition, or have any complaint to make, call the health office, Richmond 302, and we will give it our immediate attention. "That's Our Business."

BLAZE IN REAR OF HOTEL; SMALL DAMAGE

A small blaze that started in a chicken brooder in the rear of the Hotel Golden Gate, 456 Ashland avenue, shortly before noon yesterday, brought out the fire department. It was put out before any great damage was done. The alarm was turned in by telephone, the street number being given instead of the nearest street corner, causing some slight delay in the arrival of the fire fighters. R. Mazzoni is proprietor of the hotel.

Writes Sonnet On Radicalism

The following "Sonnet to the Radical" was written by a local high school student as regular work in the advanced English classes of the school:

(A sonnet is the name given the certain style of poetry, which invariably has fourtene lines, a set meter and rhyme scheme, and conveys but one main idea. It was the ambition of all great English poets to write one or more immortal sonnets.)

A SONNET TO THE "RADICAL."

Radicalism endeavors to realize a state more in harmony with the character of man.—H. Spencer, Social Statistics.

To ye that art in yon vanguard of thought,
As like a poet who to truth doth climb,
Have loosed the system's chains and sought
To find not holy grails, but plan sublime,
In which toilers more near to that just time,
When products of his toil to him may come.
Combating minds of friend and foe who live
In ruts of unconcern, content and fear
Of taunt; do onward press, nor glance to rear.
Ever thus have been at first the fearless,
And far sighted; later revered and dear.
So bear with those who seek labor's redress,
Who are content, not to contented be,
But fight for mind and body's liberty.

THRILLING REEL TODAY AT THE RICHMOND

Can a forced marriage ever be happy? That is something of the problem that faces in "The Unafraid," now playing at the Richmond in a wonderfully interesting film. The plot is cast in the little but hardy country of Montenegro, which has fought for so long against both the dual empire and the Turks. The heroine, a part taken by the dramatic star, Miss Rita Jolivet, is an American girl who goes to Montenegro to marry Michael Balsic, a dashing young Montenegran nobleman. The girl is seized by Michael's brother, Stefan, and forced to marry him so that he can get her wealth. She rebels at first, but at last realizes it has been for her greater happiness.

The balance of the excellent bill is made up of a two-reel drama, "How Hazel Got Even," and a laughable Keystone comedy, "His Second Childhood."

WHEN A MAN'S MARRIED — BY W. R. ALLMAN

SCHOOL MEET IS POSTPONED

Yesterday the C. A. C. A. A. league track and field meet to have been held on the Hayward oval this afternoon, was arbitrarily postponed by that school. Despite the fact that Hayward secured the meet on her oval, on the promise that the grounds would be ready, they yesterday pleaded unpreparedness and said that the meet would be held on next Saturday.

As the Fruitpickers have twice before dictated athletic dates to the local boys, the eleventh hour notice of the postponement, which brought with it much inconvenience, rankled in the minds of many locals.

However, the extra week will be very conveniently used by the local high track aspirants in training for the meet on May Day. William Norton, the graduate crack pole vaulter of the school, was up at the pit on the school grounds yesterday afternoon giving this year's hope, Clarence Cain, pointers on the vaulting event.

REV. WHITE TOO ILL TO PREACH

Because of the continued illness of Rev. Guy A. White, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, the local divine will be unable to occupy his pulpit during either the morning or evening services tomorrow. Announcement was made last night that Rev. James Walker of Oakland would discourse in the morning, while Dr. Sarah Wise, a noted social worker of San Francisco, would have charge of the services in the evening.

Rev. White's condition showed a slight improvement yesterday over the day before. Dr. Cunningham, the attending physician, has advised the pastor that the severe attack of la grippe will probably keep him from his pastoral duties for at least a week.

MITE BOXES OPENED.

Mite boxes were opened at the Wesley M. E. church yesterday afternoon, a tidy sum being totaled up.

The following program was given: Hymn, by society; Scripture reading; solo by Mrs. Milnes; paper by Mrs. Horner; exercises by eight little girls; leaflet by Mrs. Kinnear; collection of mite boxes.

Eric E. Baker, aged 21, of Coalinga, Kern county, secured a license to wed Miss Pauline Carter of Richmond from County Clerk Wells in Martinez yesterday. The date of the nuptials has not been announced.

EASTERN STAR WELCOMES OFFICERS

Scores of visitors from cities around the bay and the interior of Contra Costa county were in attendance at the reception to the Grand Officers of the Eastern Star, held in Bank Hall last night by Miramar and Acantha Chapters of this city. There was not a dull moment during the entire evening. In addition to the reception of the Grand Officers, and the talks of appreciation made by them, there was a big class initiation which was followed by a banquet and many toasts.

With but few exceptions all the patrons and matrons in the bay section were present last night. The majority of the Grand Officers were in attendance.

The lodge rooms and banquet tables had been tastily decorated by the joint committees in charge.

Delegations were present from Berkeley, Oakland, San Francisco, Alameda, Pinole, Martinez, Crockett and Riverbank.

RECITAL POSTPONED BECAUSE OF DEATH

Owing to a death in the family of T. W. Pearson, who was to have a recital at the Richmond clubhouse on Monday night, the recital has been postponed until May 3.

PETITIONS FOR ESTATE LETTERS

Mrs. Mary A. Clark of Richmond, widow of the late Levi A. Clark, local attorney, who died early in the month following a stroke of paralysis, has filed a petition for letters of administration in the estate of her husband in the Superior Court at Martinez. The petition recites that the estate consists of real estate in Antioch, and an interest in a promissory note, valued at $4000. Besides the widow, there are a number of surviving relatives in the East.

FIND DEATH WAS ACCIDENT

At an inquest held in the Smallwood parlors last night by Coroner C. L. Abbott, the coroner's jury arrived at the decision "That Robier Le Fontaine came to his death through concussion of the brain, caused by falling from the loft in the Rutherford barn into the stall below. Death was accidental."

Justin Price, J. A. Long, Roy Rogers, L. J. Glavinovich, Thomas Kershner and A. Jullerat were on the coroner's jury.

Le Fontaine's death occurred on March 25. The decedent was a blacksmith in the employ of Contractor Rutherford. He slept in the barn in the rear of Rutherford's residence. On the night of his demise it is thought he fell to the stall from the loft while dreaming. When the body was found Le Fontaine had been dead for several hours.

MAIN EVENT BOYS PREPARING FOR THEIR MILL

Reports from Oakland, where Kid Kelsey and Fred Waldorf, the main eventers in the boxing show next Tuesday night, are training, are to the effect that both the star welters are rapidly rounding into form, and will be in shape to step four fast rounds when the gong rings. Looking back over the record of both boys, it seems kind of doubtful if the bout will go four rounds. Both lads have a good punch in both mitts. Matchmaker Ross of the Oakland Wheelman's Club, through whom Matchmaker Richmond was enabled to secure the services of the two welters, has stated he will be out to see the match, as it looks like one of the best bouts to be arranged since professional boxing was wiped out of the state last November.

All the rest of the birds on the card are rapidly rounding to form, and some real old mills, the kind the fans fall for, can be looked for when Jimmie Silva starts the curtain raiser at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday night.

Dean Articles Resumed Sunday

Pat Dean announced last night that he would not have his third article ready for this morning's paper. The series will be resumed tomorrow morning. Lovers of the ring game are taking much interest in the series. ....It was just bringing back old times when Pat told of the first bout he promoted here in 1901.

Dean states it will be necessary every now and then to use a fictitious name. He has forgotten some of the names, while he hesitates to use the monikors of others, through fear that they might object.

FANS WARMING UP FOR BIG GAME SUNDAY

Sunday's game between the Elks and the Ambrose Tailors of Oakland is creating no end of interest locally. Realizing that the home town tossers are up against a hard proposition when they attempt to manhandle the visitors, all the fans will be on hand to root and pull for them. It promises to be the best game of the season, as the Ambrose's have only suffered one beating in several months, and that from Petaluma after 11 frames of real baseball, in which the breaks went against the cloth cutters.

Local fans will have an opportunity of seeing Starasinich, the boy wonder, work on the mound. Starasinich is touted as being big league material, after a couple of seasons more in the bushes. He will trot out everything he has Sunday in his desperate effort to beat the Elks.

Manager Bill Luce has sent the following letter to the twelve councilmanic candidates:

"You are invited to attend the candidates' baseball game Sunday, April 25, at 2:30 o'clock at the ball park, First and Macdonald avenue, Richmond. A committee—Raymond Richmond, J. F. Galvin and Roy Rodgers—has been appointed to place the names of all the candidates for city council in a hat. The first name drawn shall have the honor of pitching the first ball, the second name drawn will catch said ball and the third name will be the official announcer of the day.

"Trusting you can see your way clear to attend and wishing you success in the coming election, I am, yours respectfully,

"WILLIAM LUCE,
